

BROADWAY

Life with Father: Make Dad Happy with Great Gifts & Dining Options on Broadway

Clarence Day Sr. had very high expectations in the 1939 Broadway classic, "Life with Father." He liked things just so - and believed his family, and those around him, should understand and appreciate that his way was the right way. Day would have loved shopping and dining in Fair Lawn's Broadway District; who would dare disagree?

It would have been easy for his loved ones to please Clarence Day Sr. on Father's Day, and throughout the year, with the Broadway District's wide range of products and personal services, dining options sure to please, friendly and knowledgeable service and convenient, free parking.

There's no question about it. Fair Lawn's Broadway District is the place to go for:

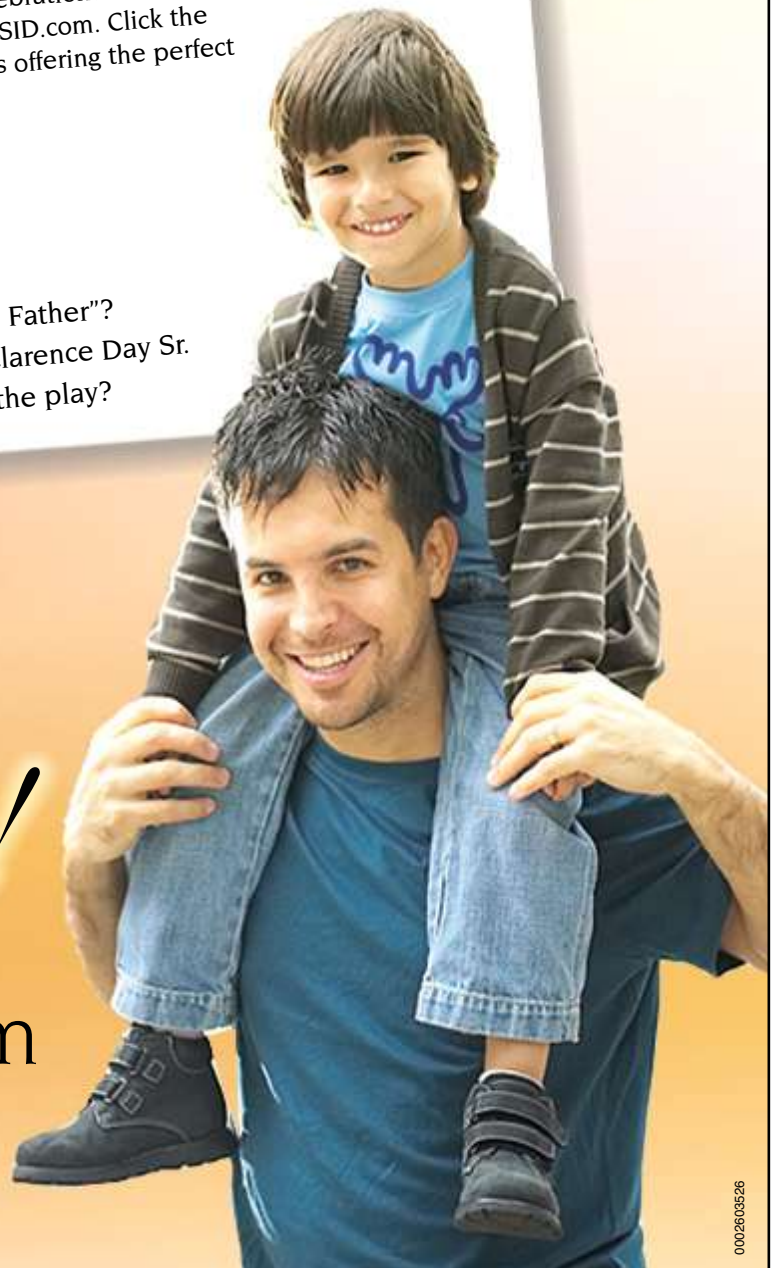

- Cell phones, smartphones, wireless devices and accessories
- Collectibles including rare memorabilia records, movies and CD's
- Spa treatments, grooming services and tattoos
- Gourmet, ethnic, specialty food items and so much more!

Looking for something special for Father's Day, graduations and celebrations of life's big events? Come to Broadway in Fair Lawn, or visit us online at www.BroadwaySID.com. Click the "Business on Broadway" link for lists of businesses and restaurants offering the perfect gifts and great dining opportunities in the district.

Take our "Life with Father" Trivia Challenge

(correct answers at bottom of page)

1. "Life with Father" holds what record for Broadway plays?
2. What theater hosted the Broadway premiere of "Life with Father"?
3. What famous actor and actress played the lead roles of Clarence Day Sr. and Lavinia "Vinnie" Day in the 1947 movie adaption of the play?

Father's Day is Sunday, June 21st!

WWW.BroadwaySID.com
Phone: 201-797-3442

ANSWERS:

1. Longest running non-musical play on Broadway
2. Empire Theater 3. William Powell and Irene Dunne